The Premium List of the Germantown Fair, just from the presses of the Ledger Printery, is quite pretentious. The outer title page is in gold, typical of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Association, while the remaining 69 pages are filled by the elaborate list of premiums and catchy advertisements. Write to Secretary John R. Walton, Germantown, for a copy.

D—EAR OLD COW!

And May the Devil Be Kind to Your Daggasted Old Carcass

The old black cow, that was sent to the cow kingdom come by encountering the 5:25 C. and O. train Wednesday in its endeavor to butt the locomotive off the track, is as common every day cow, but one with a history.

This is the same old bovine that scaled walls and climbed steps and entered the yards of the West Enders and created such havoc in garden and flower beds.

Old Blacky was omnipresent—at least some people thought so. She was here today and there tomorrow, and to say she was a holy terror to the neighborhood is but expressing it mildly.

Her name is recorded in the Police Court as well as being indelibly portrayed in the memory of those who hated as well as loved her.

Old Blacky had little of the milk of human kindness in her make-up; she was somewhat of an iconoclast in character, inasmuch as she was continually breaking into yards and destroying other people's idols.

Now that she is gone and her nocturnal wanderings are at an end, the residents of that part of the city, who were afflicted by her presence, will rest more peacefully and their slumbers be undisturbed after night's sable mantle has fallen.

Of course, the C. and O. will be expected to pay dearly for thus cutting short the career of this much despised old depredator of other people's property.

We again call attention to the fine growth of weeds in our village. There is danger in some places of parents losing their children and strangers coming to town might mistake it for a country graveyard. Cut the weeds! Cut the weeds! The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The Democrats surprised the country by nominating a Goldbug for the Presidency.

AND now 50,000 employes of the meat packing industries of the country are on a strike, and the price of beefsteaks is running a race with the thermometers.

FIVE more deaths have been added to Chicago's list of Fourth of July victims. Four died in agony from lockjaw, while the fifth succumbed to wounds caused by the explosion of a toy cannon. From other cities in the country two deaths from injuries and five from tetanus were reported, making the total of lives lost in the "patriotic celebration" $4. But, oh my, what a jolly time these boys did have!

It's explained at last—or partially so. Mr. WINDOM was wandering out Third street when he stumbled across the "Central" Presbyterian Church. He at once jumped to the conclusion that there could be no misleading inscription on a Church building, and after walking half a block farther into the country he ran across the Hunter lot. This is "central" too, he mused, and forthwith he located the Public Building near the middle of a square without the sign of street or alley on either side—though the requirements called for a "corner" lot! To cover this defect, however, a street was provided for on the Eastern side of the purchase, beginning at Third street and running into a fifty foot hole inhabited by frogs and filth.

At Cincinnati a young man was caught in the act of pushing out the glass fronts of Post-office boxes and stealing letters. He ought to have selected a Postoffice that had the glass fronts already out.

MICHAEL DONNELLY, President of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers Association, replying to a telegram respecting the attitude of his organization, said:

"The strike might have been settled had the packers consented to arbitration. The men are more able to stand a siege than the packers. Suspension of work will mean a suspension of dividends, which, if the strike is extended, will eat up the profit for years to come."

Mr. DONNELLY doesn't appear to measure the losses which will fall upon the strikers, by reason of no work. He may rest assured that the loss of dividends to the stock owners will be insignificant in comparison with the loss of wages to the 50,000 employes who have quit their places.

Political Pickings

CONCEALS THE TRUTH

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Commenting on a recent magazine article dealing with the case of Caleb Powers, The Nashville News "resents this wholesale arraignment of the Courts of Kentucky and this partisan defense of a band of red-handed assassins. Caleb Powers has been thrice convicted. Twice has the Court of Appeals in Kentucky passed upon his case, once when the majority of the Court was Republican in politics."

The News is right in its statement that the Court of Appeals has twice passed on the case of Caleb Powers, and right in the statement that once was when the majority of the Court was Republican. The other time was when the majority of the Court was made up of Democrats.

But The News, generally fair, ought to have stated the whole record, and that record is that on both occasions the Court of Appeals reversed the judgment of conviction—the Democratic Court and the Republican Court. The murder of Gobel was a cowardly assassination. No one disputes the fact. But when The News calls the indicted parties a band of red-handed assassins it ought to have gone further and added that in every single case when the convictions were taken to the Court of Appeals—Democratic or Republican—the judgment of conviction was set aside and reversed. These are the record facts.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered almost miserably with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity."

RARE WORK OF ART

Mr. Wm. Archdeacon Has Received One From the East

It is a common expression that the "early bird catches the worm," but the best illustration of the quaint old saying is in the possession of William Archdeacon of West Third street, a connoisseur of high class art.

It is an illuminated picture of rare design and finish, the subject and objects being so readily and easily understood that the most obtuse can understand without either chart or interpreter.

The picture was secured in New York—no doubt at a considerable outlay of money—by Mr. George L. Cox and forwarded to his old friend, knowing full well his penchant for antique articles—especially of this class and character. It is well worth a look. Ask Mr. Archdeacon to let you see it?

RIPE OLD AGE

Mrs. Ann M. Nicholson Celebrated Her Ninety-Third Birthday

Mrs. Ann M. Nicholson of Ashland, widow of the late Harrison Nicholson, has just celebrated her ninety-third birthday. Mrs. Nicholson was born in Lewis county July 12th, 1811, and though nearly a century old, she is as active of mind and body as one of three score years.

Mrs. Nicholson, before marriage, was Ann M. Purcell. She was married January 27th, 1834, in this city, the Rev. Mr. Leitch of the M. E. Church performing the ceremony at the home of Mr. Nicholson's sister, Mrs. Thornley. This venerable lady has been a member of the Christian Church for 69 years. She was baptized by the great Alexander Campbell, the founder of the Church, in the Ohio river at this place in the month of April, 1835.

Mrs. Nicholson, with her husband, went to Ashland April 24th, 1854. She claims the honor of having dressed the first two children born in Ashland—the first child born being the late Ashland Poage, and the second being the late Judge William Poage.

Only a few weeks ago Mrs. Nicholson was made a great-great-grandmother by the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gennetto of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Nicholson has eight children living: William, George, Benjamin and Miss Kate Nicholson of Ashland; Mrs. Gray of Ironton; Mrs. J. Q. Adams of Cincinnati; Mrs. Mary Speller Curtis of Nevada and John Nicholson of California.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Thompson, of Lillydale, N.Y., Grand Worthy Wise Templar, and Member of W.C.T.U., tells how she recovered by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am one of the many of your grateful friends who have been cured through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and who can to-day thank you for the fine health I enjoy. When I was thirty-five years old, I suffered severe backache and frequent bearing-down pains; in fact, I had womb trouble. I was very anxious to get well, and reading of the cures your Compound had made, I decided to try it. I took only six bottles, but it built me up and cured me entirely of my troubles. My family and relatives were naturally as gratified as I was. My niece had heart trouble and nervous prostration, and was considered incurable. She took your Vegetable Compound and it cured her in a short time, and she became well and strong, and her home to her great joy and her husband's delight was blessed with a baby. I know of a number of others who have been cured of different kinds of female trouble, and am satisfied that your Compound is the best medicine for sick women."—MRS. ELIZABETH H. THOMPSON, Box 105, Lillydale, N.Y.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.
